Faith
Formation
Corner

This past week, our schools welcomed back students for the 2024-25 school year. Our Sacred Heart Faith Formation program continues to finalize registrations and set up classes for the new school year. Please remember to visit our website at www.sacredheartreligion.org to learn more about our program and the year ahead!

Sunday, September 8, is the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Remember to celebrate Mary's birthday by doing something special for her! Consider lighting a candle by her statue or in front of her image in your home, have a birthday cake in her honor, and definitely don't forget to pray the Rosary on this special day!

Sunday, September 15th at 9:30 am is Catechetical Sunday and Blessing of the Backpacks. Children should bring their backpacks to Mass!

Tuesday, September 17th at 7 pm is our Opening Mass for our Faith Formation program. Fr. McBrien will welcome our families during this mass as well as discuss the important role parents have in the religious instruction of their children.

How important is the Rosary to our Blessed Mother?

A legend tells a story about a Lay Brother of the Order of the Dominicans. When he finished his work at night (sweeping, gardening, etc.) he went to the convent chapel and knelt in front of the image of the Virgin Mary, and recited 150 Hail Marys, then went to sleep in his room. In the morning, he got up before all his brothers and went to the chapel to repeat his habit of greeting the Virgin.

Brother Superior noticed that every day, when he arrived at the chapel to celebrate morning prayers with all the monks, there was a smell of freshly cut roses and he became curious, he couldn't find anyone that said they brought the roses to decorate the altar, and the rose bushes in the garden were not missing their flowers.

The lay brother became seriously ill; the other monks noticed that the altar of the Virgin did not have the usual roses, and they deduced that it was the Brother who brought the roses. But how?

Nobody had ever seen him leave the convent, nor did they know where he could buy the beautiful roses.

One morning they were surprised that he had risen, but they could not find him. At last, they met him in the chapel, and each monk who entered was amazed, for the lay brother was kneeling in front of the image of the Virgin, ecstatically reciting his Hail Marys, and at each one that addressed the Lady, a beautiful rose would appear in one of the vases!

Happy Birthday to Our Blessed Mother!!

CAR WASH

The 8th Grade Students are sponsoring a car wash in the school parking lot on 84th Street this Saturday, September 14th (Raindate: September 21st) from 10:00 AM to 1:00 PM.

Donation: $10.00.

Treat your car to a wash and at the same time help the Class of 2025 raise funds for this year's class trip!
