NOVEMBER 17, 2024—THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Dear Parishioners,

Let's talk about stamps. Postage stamps. Each year at this time I go to the Post Office and request Christmas stamps, not the holiday ones but the religious ones. This year the religious image is an image of the Madonna and Child and as the United States Postal Service (USPS) describes: "This artwork depicts a watchful Madonna, her head tilted toward the sleeping Christ child-resting against her. She wears a blue cloak and a dark red gown, from which off-white undersleeves emerge at the elbows. A beige veil, reminiscent of a halo, covers part of her light brown hair. Her child appears partially in beige cloth. The background is brown and a gold border frames the image."

For history buffs among us, the first religious Christmas stamp owes its origin in part to the lobbying efforts of Anthony Coviello, a parishioner at Our Lady of Mount Carmel in Waterbury, CT. The 1966 stamp, "Madonna and Child with Angels," started a trend of Christmas stamps featuring Renaissance paintings. The series was interrupted in 1977 when the Christmas stamp featured a praying George Washington. In 1995 there was a close call to stop production of religious Christmas stamps but different public interest groups helped the Post Office to change its mind.

Today the Postal Service offers stamps for other religious and ethnic celebrations. The Hanukkah stamp debuted in 1996, the Kwanzaa stamp appeared in 1997 and the Eid stamp commemorating Muslim festivals was introduced in 2001.

Already the Postal Service has identified several works of art that it plans to use for future religious stamps and it doesn't expect to run out of images any time soon.

So as to safeguard and preserve this form of evangelization each Christmas, the Parish Evangelization Committee will offer the new religious Christmas stamp after all the Masses next weekend. The stamps will be sold in books of 20 valued at $14.60 and exact change would be appreciated.

With the help and interest of the Evangelization Committee we can be assured that the religious stamp will "stick" around for a long time to come. God bless you!

Father Mc Bruin

PARISH THANKSGIVING LITURGY will take place on Thursday, November 28th at 9:00 AM. Let us come together as a parish family and give thanks for God's bounty shared among all of us. You are welcomed to bring canned goods to the Mass that will be offered and given to the parish food pantry. At the end of Mass each family will receive bread with a prayer blessing to be broken and shared with family and friends at your Thanksgiving table.

DAFFODIL WEEKEND

Special thanks to the Laudato Si Parish Group and everyone who participated in Daffodil Weekend, November 2nd and 3rd. On Saturday over 400 daffodil bulbs were planted by parishioners, families and friends in Forest Park along the walking path adjacent to Myrtle Avenue and on Sunday parishioners took home extra daffodil bulbs for their gardens. Special thanks to the NYC Parks Dept. for its assistance with tools, gloves, trash bags, etc. and to students in Sacred Heart Catholic Academy who did their own planting too. This worthwhile parish volunteer project showed the care we have for the beauty of God's creation all around us!

Once again, the Sacred Heart Catholic Academy extends gratitude to all veterans not just on Veterans Day but every day!

The Class of 2025 attended a special Ring Day Mass this past Wednesday. It was a beautiful service. The class and their families celebrated Ring Day with a special luncheon at Barosa. This is ideally the start of many wonderful senior class events.

The Academy had class and individual pictures taken this past week on Thursday and Friday. A makeup date for absent students will be shared shortly.

We would like to extend a huge thank you to Finback for hosting our Community Day and 8th Grade Bake Sale event this past Saturday. Thank you to all who were able to attend. Your continued support is appreciated.

God Bless.
Mr. C

Saturday, November 16th, the Church celebrates the feast day of Saint Gertrude. Saint Gertrude is known widely for her devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. She loved God and was very aware of his love for her! Saint Gertrude's journaling of her mystical experiences (several visions of Jesus and Mary) and prayers were so powerful that other Saints such as Teresa of Avila chose her as a mentor while Francis de Sales recommended study of her writing. Gertrude studied and translated many books and wrote her own in Latin. She was known for her charity and humility.

November 17th at 9:30 am is our Grade/Level 8 class Mass followed by the second proximate prep presentation entitled "Full of Grace" in the Church basement. Attendance is mandatory for all candidates seeking the sacrament of confirmation.

Looking back, during the recent Blessed Carlo Acutis Marian apparitions exhibit, some children were moved to pray to our Blessed Mother (see photo). This is a beautiful reminder of the connection between Heaven and Earth through statues and images of our Blessed Mother.

"Bodily and spiritual affliction are the surest sign of Divine predilection. Gratitude for suffering is a precious jewel for our heavenly crown... Man should always firmly believe that God sends just that trial which is most beneficial for him." — St. Gertrude the Great

Saint Isidore the Farmer, Patron Saint of Rain

Given the drought conditions along both coasts of the United States, let's all remember to pray to Saint Isidore who is the Patron Saint for rain. Legend tells us that if Saint Isidore was late to work because he went to Mass, an angel was seen plowing the fields for him! Saint Isidore, pray for us!
